

New Life and Enthusiasm at the Bass Lake Kelly Shires Breast Cancer Garage Sale August 1, 2015

Architecture Digest Said “they could not believe the sleek design features of the BEAUTIFUL LEMONADE STAND recently spotted at the Kelly Shires Breast Cancer Foundation -Bass Lake Giant Garage sale.

Eat your heart out Frank Lloyd Wright

Pictured here are the proprietors of the stand Mallory and Morgan MacDonald (daughters of design engineer Jeff) and their cousin Nathan Emmerson. They did not miss an opportunity to sell the delicious homemade product. Their mission was to quench the thirst of the garage sale treasure shoppers while raising money for the charity. When asked why they would give up their time enjoying lake ...” Morgan said she knew of a mom from her school that lost her life to breast Cancer at age 42. They just wanted to make a difference by helping raise money to help others”. An Impressive $220.00 dollars toward the total of $5500.00 raised for the weekend.

The sale, celebrating its 7th year has become a focal point of the summer for the cottagers and residents of Bass Lake. Graham Hatherley owner of the Bass Lake Roadhouse continues to support our efforts with a prime sale location and generous donations.

Pauline and Chris Whittingham (owners of the Glen Orchard General Store) donated Pink Muskoka chairs for a raffle and Neil and Drew Leicester entertained at the Bass Lake Roadhouse the night before the sale raising money selling their CD's.

What a weekend!

New Life and Enthusiasm at the Bass Lake Kelly Shires Breast Cancer

Garage Sale August 1, 2015

Mary Ann Beaudin and the Bass Lake Pink Ladies